

Holly Tree, The Conclusion

sometimes i sit down here and start to think if i'm not being who i'am than i ask myself lots of things the answer i never can understand and when i start to look at the others i realize everyone is mad they don't know they look like robots or even that their lives are sad it will never end it will never be as it should be now i can say that the conclusion will be the same
