

Hollywood Undead, Pain

-Whispered-

Now I can see your pain I'm sorry.
I cried so hard. (x2)

The necks of this youth,
With their necks through this noose
Were told lies like it's truth
And we suspect that it's you
So you strap 'em with the a-k
It's Mother fuckin' mayday
They swear I'm fuckin' crazy
'Aint nothin gonna save me
I'm breakin, I feel it
I'm naked I'm kneelin
I'm shakin I'm reelin
My god I keep bleedin
I watch the world die through crimson eyes
I cry, it hurts tonight
I die, I see the light
And now I'll say goodbye

Now I can see your pain I'm sorry
(GOODBYE)
I cried so hard
Now I can see your pain I'm sorry
(GOODBYE)
I cried tonight

If I could take all this pain away
Use the rage of our youth today
Whose to say that it's you to blame
It's the people above you
The ones who say that they love you
Look what the world has come to
So now it's time to say "Fuck you"
You think you can and they drug you
When no one is staring when they numb you
Fill you with terror and crush you
Pretend they care as they shove you
So you look to me to find the truth
And what I say is what you do
But everyone you look up to
Is really as fucked up as you
Time is getting shorter
With these enforcer's orders
And we get blamed and pushed around
Who's the fucking villain now?

Now I can see your pain I'm sorry
(GOODBYE)
I cried so hard
Now I can see your pain I'm sorry
(GOODBYE)
I cried tonight

We can't stop now
Were so close now
Cause these times are almost over
I wont give up
So god save us
It feels like were getting closer
We can't stop now
Were so close now
Cause these times are almost over

I wont give up
So god save us

Now I can see your pain I'm sorry
(GOODBYE)
I cried so hard
Now I can see your pain I'm sorry
(GOODBYE)
I cried tonight
(GOODBYE)
I cried tonight
I cried tonight
