

HoloChaust, No Longer Exist

I, i'm the one to expose you
'Cos i'm the witness of the butcher
You, enjoying maljustice
So I ensure you will repay

'Cos I, I can see through you
For what you say is not true
I'm after you until they know why they
No longer exist
Life. In a way of a strong death
Seems just a word without a meaning
Despair. My will to get even
It's time from anger to believing

I, I can see through you
For what you say is not true
I'm after you until they know why they
No longer exist
Fear. Creeping deep in your conscious
Punishment for all your mistakes
Revenge. Fighting all my convictions
Love made murderer out of me

And I,
Breaking rules I made
My white to darkest shade
You and I we are the same
Me to blame:
You may no longer exist
