

Honest Bob And The Factory-To-Dealer Incentive

Wise men call me a genius
Stupid and evil men call me crazy
Man is the only evil animal
Man is the only word animal
Word equates instituted evil
Word altruism is anti-child
A word god can be erased
Word brings a devil curse

Get ready for armageddon
You've been educated stupid and are too dumb to know it
Or maybe just to evil to care
Ignorance of the timecube is a curse upon humanity
Minds must see a timecube that eyes cannot comprehend

Beliefs equate pornography, for they coexist on the web
There is no damn word god
Truth is physical, word a lie
It is what you do not utter
Without doing, words starve
Word god lends not a hand
Words bring an evil curse

Get ready for armageddon
You are educated stupid and can't compute a timecube
You are unworthy of Earth life
You deserve banishment to a barren planet more fit for your anti-nature lifestyle

I am wiser than all gods and scientists, for I have created
Four simultaneous worlds with four simultaneous days within a single rotation of Earth
And have created four simultaneous years in a single orbit of the Earth around the sun
And I have created four-corner stages of human metamorphosis

You've been educated stupid and are too dumb to know it
Or maybe are too evil to care
Ignorance of the timecube is a curse upon humanity
Minds must see a timecube that eyes cannot comprehend
Minds must see a timecube that eyes cannot comprehend
