

Honey Is Cool, Haakon

Your money running through my fingers
Your money running through my fingers
Your money coming through my inner
Your money coming through my inner
- from left to right!

They're coming closer making you closer
and they never tell me,
where to draw the lines,
where to draw the lines

You point at me - a wife to be an endlessly I cut on knees first then I send a huge dream about mice and queens

You ate before I ever breathed

closer -
making you closer
and they never tell me,
where to draw the lines,
where to draw the lines

When they go;
counting Sundays
When I go I will leave you too

and they never tell me,
where to draw the lines,
