bottom feeders, nose bleeders the (van) is at the gates they want a piece of you but they're gonna have to wait stickng pins in dolls and their thinking but you if the concord's in the air it's probably got a pretty good view come out of the dim come into the lite come out (here you'll see) come out the nite they say you're clever and they'll say you're cute little emperor in a birthday suit you call the shots the bomb, the dagger, and the firing swat lining up to shoot you're lying (there shaken) when all your things were taken and inside your (shop) you believe a beautiful (revere), she has a radio antenna she's sending signals but you can't receive sticking pins in dolls and their thinking 'bout you if the concord's in the air it's probably got a pretty good view come out of the dim come into the lite come out here you'll see come out of the nite come out of the nite
