

Honeydogs, Stonewall

The Queen is dead
After the drag show
The lady in the paper said, 'Got what he asked for'

They have a secret code
They have a secret kiss
That I wanna know

The boys club
Lets the girls in
If they look good
The doorman kept calls
They might find his (foot)

They have a secret code
They have a secret kiss
That I wanna know

Sitting among the great unwashed
Waiting for the rain to start
Everyone's lives seem so clear
Watching from up here

They have a secret code
They have a secret kiss
That I'll never know
