

Honeydogs, The Crown

Come hell
Or hot water
You're going down
And easy, lies the head
That wears the crown

You forgot your (peas and cubes)
Because you paid your dues
Doesn't make it alright

And there's a bug at your window
That will not leave you alone
Tonight
And heaven looks after
Fools and thieves
Heaven looks after
Fools and thieves
Heaven looks after
Fools and thieves

Easy as the egg strikes the stone
It's the one that finds the bone
You too shall pass
And easy lies the head
That wears the crown

And heaven looks after
Fools and thieves
Heaven looks after
Fools and thieves
Heaven looks after
Fools and thieves

Head's a penny
Are a broken mirror
You can have them all
We don't need them here

We worship the ground, you trip on
Wanna stay but you've got to get out
Feeling sure but you have your doubts
And easy lies the head
That wears the crown

And heaven looks after
Fools and thieves
Heaven looks after
Fools and thieves
Heaven looks after
Fools and thieves
