

Honorata Skarbek Honey, Wings Up

How many times, nobody wanted to listen how many times, you lost hope how many tears, fell from your eyes look in the mirror, how beautiful you are

I know it's hard to fight with the gravity with all these haters bringing you down
but you get handle it don't give up Hook: Just put your wings up, and show them what you got, stay yourself, follow your dreams,

Just put your wings up, I'll show you how to fly, impossible is nothing,
and never ever again don't let people say,
that you don't deserve what you want to get,
please never again don't let people say,
that you don't deserve what you want to get,

you sold your soul, to the devil, and have no clue, what to do You're tired of wearing, your crown of thorns scream your heart out, feel the freedom, free your mind

with all these haters bringing you down

Just put your wings up, and show them what you got,
stay yourself, follow your dreams,
Just put your wings up, I'll show you how to fly,
impossible is nothing,
and never ever again don't let people say,
that you don't deserve what you want to get,
please never again don't let people say,
that you don't deserve what you want to get,

demons holy trinity,
make sure you've found your destiny, now put you wings up,
now put your wings up,
be saint or be a sinner, baby you are the winner,
put your wings up,

Just put your wings up, and show them what you got,
stay yourself, follow your dreams,
Just put your wings up, I'll show you how to fly,
impossible is nothing,
and never ever again don't let people say,
that you don't deserve what you want to get,
please never again don't let people say,
that you don't deserve what you want to get.

Just put your wings up, just put your wings up.
