

Hoobastank, Ready For You (Acoustic)

Go on, make me feel it's useless.
When in fact it's you that needs to have me near.
So now keep me at safe distance and with a little persistence I'll make it crystal clear.

Chorus:

I'll be around only if you want me to be there by your side.
I'm ready for you.
So don't be afraid 'cause I know what you're going through.
So when you think it's time
I'm ready for you.

Now you seem to be content with a one sided friendship with you I've got to chase.
Slow down so I can smell the roses
but the road you chose is crooked and unpaved.
my tires are spinning but to no avail.
