

Hope Of The States, Don't Go To Pieces

Are you tired
And pushed to the side?
Are you broken
Whenever you try?
Just get up again
And let everyone know,
You're gonna try your best
And never let go.

Don't you go to pieces now
I need you more than I ever did.
Don't you go to pieces now
I need you all the time.

Are you angry
When you look at the world?
So desperate
It's making you ill?
Don't be alone and frightened
By all that you see.
There's a million good hearts
Like you and like me.

Don't you go to pieces now
I need you more than I ever did.
Don't you go to pieces now
I need you all the time.

Don't you go to pieces now
I need you more than I ever did.
Don't you go to pieces now
I need you all the time.

It's alright to be alone sometimes
But please come back tomorrow,
I need you all the time.

It's alright to be alone sometimes
But please come back tomorrow,
I need you all the time.

The people you leave behind:
They worry all the time.
Why don't you realise,
And why won't you try?
