

Horrorpops, Girl In A Cage

The circle now has come to it's end
You've found somebody new to change
You try to rearrange-put the girl in a pretty cage
It just shows how brave you are

I gave you all and then some more
But that was not enough
I gave and lost and lost and gave
No matter how great the cost

Lets see how much this new girl can take
Lets see how long she can fake
You know you'll never be satisfied
You're the one that lies
It just shows how great you are
