

Horslips, Dearg Doom

Dearg Doom.

Our man Cu Chulainn!

Dearg Doom means the Red Destroyer. The tune is O'Neill's Cavalry.

My love is colder than black marble by the sea.

My heart is older than the cold oak tree.

I am the flash of silver in the sun.

When you see me coming you had better

run . . . run . . . run .

From Dearg Doom.

You speak in whispers of the devils I have slain

By the fire of my silver Devil's Blade,

And still you dare to flaunt yourself at me.

I don't want you, I don't need you,

I don't love you, can't you see

I'm Dearg Doom.

And when the stars go out

You can hear me shout

"Two heads are better than none,

One hundred heads are so much better than one";

I'm a boy who was born blind to pain

And, like a hawk, I'll swoop and swoop again.

I am the flash of Hawkeye in the sun.

When you see me coming you had better run . . . run . . . run .

From Dearg Doom.
