

Hound Dog Taylor, Freddie's Blues

(Hound Dog Taylor)

You know sometime boy
Your just sitting at home alone
(my mama told me about it)
(my mama told me about it)
When your sitting there
Boy you ain't home
Everybody you get
I swear, they do you wrong

You get so tried
Boy you don't know what in the world to do
You get so tried
You don't know what in the world to do
And then you tell her
Baby this on up will come to you

Or you know sometimes I get mad
And she just walk up and hold my hand
Well I'll be burn up
She just walk up and hold my hand
And she said, do you know darling, your my loving man

You know I turn around and look at her
And I look down in her face
I turn around and I look down in her face
She said I'm your joy, and you lawyer, I'm on your case

(Yeah, yeah, that's what she told me
Yeah, yeah, yeah, that's what she told me)
