

House Of Lords, Jealous Heart

Here and now
so far and few time will tell if our love may no longer subdue

This prison cell was never intended for two silent hell is burning inside of you

Oh this jealous heart
will never forget
this jealous heart
so full of regret Jealous heart will never reach out I'll be leaving that all up to you Jealous heart

Watching as time selfishly calls leaves me behind your compassion meant nothing at all the promises burned, fueled by the lies now I must learn hot to carelessly tell you goodbye

will never forget
so full of regret
Jealous heart will never reach out

now I'm chained to your freedom and I'm possessed by the night I never asked for this feeling Oh I've been cut by your knife

Jealous heart
will never forget
so full of regret
Jealous heart will never reach out

my jealous, jealous heart oh babe
