

House of Wolves, My chemical Romance

I know a thing about contrition
'Cause I got enough to say
And I'll be grantin' your permission
Cause you haven't got a prayer
I said, hey hallelujah
Well come on, sing the praise
Let the spirit come on through ya
We got innocence today
Well I think Im gonna burn in hell
Everybody burn the house down
She says well, what I wanna say
Tell me Im an angel
Take this to my grave
Tell me Im a bad man
Kick me like a slave
Tell me Im an angel
Take this to my grave
Well a ring around the ambulance
Like I never gave a care
I said, choir boys surround you
It's a compliment, I swear
I said, ashes to ashes, we all fall down
I wanna hear you sing the praise
I said, ashes to ashes, we all fall down
Without innocence today
Well I think Im gonna burn in hell
Everybody burn the oustside
She says, yeah, what I wanna say
Tell me Im an angel
Take this to my grave
Tell me Im a bad man
Kick me like a slave
Tell me Im an angel
Take this to my grave
You better walk like the devil,
Cause theyre never gonna leave you
You better hide em in the alley
Cause theyre never gonna find you a home
And as the blood runs down the walls
You see me creepin' up these halls

Well I should say, what I wanna say
Tell me Im an angel
Take this to my grave
Tell me Im a bad man
Kick me like a slave
Tell me Im an angel
Take this to my grave
Tell me Im a bad man, bad man man
Tell me Im a bad man, bad man man
Tell me Im a bad man, bad man man
Tell me Im a bad man, bad man man
