

House Rockerz, Guardian Angel

I'm still longing for the life
I hope there will be
A guardian angel by my side
I'm still running for my life
I hope there will be
A guardian angel by my side
I'm still longing for the life
I hope there will be
A guardian angel by my side
I'm still running for my life
I hope there will be
A guardian angel by my side
I'm still longing for the life
I hope there will be
A guardian angel by my side
I'm still running for my life
I hope there will be
A guardian angel by my side
