

HOW TO DESTROY ANGELS, Keep It Together

I feel the skin that separates us,
Start to fade
And when i lye on top of you,
I?m afraid
I can see right through myself,
Crystal clear
I am disassembling
I could disappear,
Disappear

There is a voice inside of me,
I don?t know
And all his words keep echoing
Trim and low
I?ve been waiting for a sign to appear
He has a message waiting for me
But I don?t wanna hear
I promise,
I swear,
I can not keep it together
I can not keep it together
I can not keep it together
I can not keep it together

I can not keep it together
I can not keep it together
I can keep it together
I can keep it together
I can kee? it together
I can keep it together
I can keep it together
I can keep it together
I can keep it together
I can keep it together
I can not keep it together
I can keep it together
I can keep it together
I can keep it together
