

Howard Jones, Never Say Bye

Remember the time
Of power & passion
Now the sticks & stones have spoken
Waiting for dust
To settle around us
Were we really in the same place
At the same time

Never say bye
Don't be stranger
Living was easy
In love for a season
Never say bye
Thanks for the memory
Everything changes
If truth is forever

Shiny & new
But just for a moment
Will your gold return to glitter
Someday we'll find
A meeting of minds
Goodbye doesn't mean to be cruel
But dies on the vine

Never say bye...
