

Howard Jones, Sleep My Angel

Sleep my angel
It is time for bed
I will be there
To watch over you
I'll protect you from the world
And the voices in your head
I'll be with you
With my life I will defend
I'll be with you
I will be there in the end

And I'll cry your tears
As you feel every pain
Coax out the sun
From the endless rain
Thought I'd never feel
So much love for another
I'll be with you
I will be there in the end

Love that is there
Through the false and the real
Love that desires
No reward and no gain
As I hold your tiny hand
You'll never know how I feel
There's a promise
With my life I will defend
I will be there with you 'til the end

And I'll cry your tears
As you feel every pain
Coax out the sun
From the endless rain
Thought I'd never feel
So much love for another
I'll be with you
I will be there 'til the end

All that potential
Bursting inside
Let me help you on your journey
Let me help you with life

I will be there with you 'til the end
