

Howard Jones, Tomorrow Is Now

Tomorrow is... tomorrow is now

You think the past is behind you
But baby what's that on your back
It looks to me like you're draggin' it around like a heavy pack

Now we don't live in the present
We're to busy hangin' on To what's been and gone so it comes again singin' the same old song

Singin' na na-na na na
Let it go oh oh

Tomorrow is... tomorrow is now
Tomorrow is... tomorrow is now

What are you going to ask for What are you going to create
It's in you hands to build your own world forget about fate

And I don't need to remind you
Life is short and life is sweet
And before you even know it past and future gonna meet

Oh, every day and every way
Good to go oh oh

Tomorrow is... tomorrow is now
Tomorrow is... tomorrow is now
Tomorrow is... tomorrow is now
Tomorrow is... tomorrow is now

Not much to say
It's all been said, anyway
Not much to think about
Just let go of yesterday

Singin' na na-na na na
Singin' na na-na na na
Let it go oh oh

Tomorrow is... tomorrow is now
Tomorrow is... tomorrow is now
Tomorrow is... tomorrow is now
Tomorrow is... tomorrow is now
