

Hugh X. Lewis, One Broken Dream (Is Not The E

One broken dream is not the end of dreaming not every dream you dream comes true
Who can be sure love will endure those fond embraces may whip off spaces
One passing cloud can't stop the moon from beaming so don't give up and say amen
One broken dream is not the end of dreaming a new love will make you dream again
( piano - guitar )
One passing cloud can't stop the moon...
