

Human Waste Project, One Night In Spain

Oh quick you, look at me, and it all just disappears,
What is this? its my faith,
and it's spilled all over you,
as I relax,
and breath your name,
like I did in high,
I go ahead and lie to you,
'cause borrowed is this time,

I cracked, faded, gone...

You see my all spilling, it's on the floor 12 stories high,
as I watch you wreck yourself,
and it's over nothing,
cause I could be,
your anything,
but still I'm never younger,
I go ahead, and lie to you,
cause borrowed is this time,

We are perfect when we lie,
we're always losing,
lets go home...
It's over...
Over, Over,
Over...

Remember this, I always kept,
a little something to myself,
and now I can't breath your name, Im giving up that something,
I go ahead, and lie to you,
'cause borrowed is this time...

We are perfect, when we lie,
we're always losing,
lets go home,

I cracked, faded, gone...
I cracked, faded, gone.

Come on, I'm waiting
I'm waiting for you,
None of this is real, just remember cause none of this is real...

Cause we are perfect when we lie, we're always losing lets just go home high,
We are perfect when we lie,
we're always losing,
lets go home...

Its Over, Over Over...
