

Hundred Reasons, I'll Find You what could have happened to take what's become of this choices that he had made moulds to most of it but to hide in the shade will keep the weather out and to crawl into the hole that hides you now he's hidden it all just to cover his tracks sutured what could be described as a fact taking the trail that leads will find you, find you back to the start of it before it will be changed if it's a little wierd well then dig in a bit it's more than the sum of all the separate parts to fool the thoughts i had that you will take to heart (chorus) failsafe always tends to try make way while you watch and wait for those who take it on themselves x2

(chorus)x2
i'll find you find you
find you
x3
and i'll find you
yes i'll find you
