

Hundred Reasons, Remmus

still always here to meet you drained all for me disconnected drown here in blame that's rescued so we all fall
your demons fooled us all and that became your winter cannot forget this in breaking of a fall you mispronounced your wording cannot forget this sounds draw you to stare right at this conformed to when you changed it and i try hard to make you feel much better
so we all fall
I forgot why i'm here.
