

Hunter, Let The Sun Shine

It's raining today, the sky is grey
But it won't get me down, there's a secret I have found

I can let the sun shine - in my heart
I can let the sun shine - in my mind
When the skies are blue are blue, it's easier to do
But if it's raining I can do it too
I can let the sun shine in my heart

So if it's raining today, and the sky is grey
Don't let it get you down, there's a secret to be found

You can let the sun shine - in your heart
You can let the sun shine - in your heart
When the skies are blue, it's easier to do
But if it's raining, you can do it too
Let the sun shine in your heart
