STAN'S PARK. (c. Dale Hunter)

- 1.) Well I went down to Stan's Park, to take a look around. And I was filled with wonder, at nature's sight and sound
- ch.) I was groovin', yeah, groovin' by the sea. I was groovin', won't you come along with me. Because Stan's Park, yeah, it's the coolest park in history.
- 2.) My feet they got to walkin', I went past Lion's Gate. My body got to feelin' good, and my brain said this is great!
- br.) The trees so tall, the grass so green the vegetation, man, what a scene. Walkin' around the Lost Lagoon, you might see a big racoon, when it's time to leave my mind says, "it's too soon"...
