

Hunters & Collectors, You Can Have It All

Just want to see the big picture

Just want to have my cake and eat it

Don't think about the past or the future

When all my business is defeated

But I won't take it lying down

One week in and one week out

Make sure the word gets around

Just what my story's all about

I take the world between my teeth

I put my money where my mouth is

And I walk down into the street

Brush aside every beggar that I meet

Hey sir!

You can have it all

Hey sir!

You can have it all

Yeah, I walked out into the street

And every beggar that I meet says

Hey, you gotta dollar for a drink

But who cares, who cares what I think

Credit made me what I am today

Someone will win and somebody will pay

It doesn't matter if you love anybody

Cause love will never blow your debts away

Hey sir!

You can have it all

Hey sir!

You can have it all

Hey sir!

You can have it all

Hey sir!

You can have it all
