

Huntingtons, Now I'm Alright

i used to be dependent on a love that was only rented for a small amount of time just to mess up my mind on you oh a girl like you is so priceless to a guy so indecisive makes me wanna lose my mind 'cuz i wasted my time on you oh you are the girl that i thought i loved but now i'm oh so sure oh oh (oh oh) alright (alright) i'm alright with out you baby alright (alright) alright (alright) i'm alright with out you i ran around in circles jumping over all your hurdles on the chance of taking time to settle down my mind on you oh a girl like you is so priceless to a guy who (?) he's messed up in the mind 'cause he wasted his time on you
