

Huntingtons, She's A Brat

when sh was young nobody wanted to babysit her now she's all grown up and all i want to do is hit her yeah she's such a pain, she's rattlin' my brain she's so annoying and she's going to drive me insane

she's a brat
and she's always at my door
she's a brat
i can't stand that girl no more yeah yeah yeah
she's a brat

she steals the candy from the kids on halloween knocks over all the trashcans in the neighborhood how mean
yeah she's such a pain
she's rattling my brain

she likes to run around and scream and yell all night look at her funny she'll try to pick a fight all the neighbors say her heads not screwed on tight yeah there's something 'bout that girl that just ain't right some people say it's just a form of self-expression i don't care somebody ought to teach that girl a lesson

yeah she's such a pain
she's so annoying and she's going to drive me insane.
