

Huntingtons, That Guy Stole My Girl

That guy - Doesn't deserve you
He doesn't even know what your favorite color is
That guy - He's a jerk
That guy - He doesn't love you
He's gonna run around Oh yeah you know its true
That guy - He won't work

And I'm sick and tired
Of trying to figure it out
Of holding back but I have my doubts
That I can give you anymore than this

I'm gonna love you forever yeah its true
And I'd stop watching stupid cartoons for you
It doesn't compare to when he says he'd walk the world
But that's a lie and that guy stole my girl

That guy - He talks so cool yeah
He doesn't know much
But he knows just what to say
That guy - He's so smooth
That guy - He drives a cool car
He's got a lot of friends
And they all think he's swell
That guy - He's a boob

And I'm sick and tired
Of trying to figure it out
Of holding back but I have my doubts
That I can give you anymore than this

Girl, I'm picking up signals
And the transmission's coming in clear
He's done, he's history, it's over
Or is that just my heart that I hear?
