

Hurt, Overdose

I'll take one cause
I needed to feel it so much
I had an emotional crutch, but
I'm feeling bored
So I'll take some more
'Cause nothing is happening

And once you
Told me you loved me so much
I foolishly began to trust, but
Now I'm ignored
And I'm taking more
Till something is happening

I'll take one cause
I needed to feel it so much
I needed that thing we call fun, but
Now I'm ignored
And I'll take some more
Till something is happening

Cause once I
Thought you were right here with me, so
Maybe I'll take two or three
Until I believe
That what I have seen
Is really happening

Morpheus!
How could you leave me when I had need of your love?
Stop holding back!
Give me one reason to think you're decent
When I am
Alone
Don't you ever try to bring me back

With this one I
Needed to feel you so much
I wantingly longed for your touch, but
Now I'm ignored
And I'm feeling bored
Till something is happening

Because once I
Thought you were right here with me, so
Maybe I should take two or three
Until I believe
What I have seen
Is really happening

With this one I
Needed to feel you so much
I needed that thing we call fun, but
Now I'm ignored
And I'm feeling bored
Till something is happening

And once I
Thought you were right here with me, so
Maybe I'll take two or three
Until I believe
That what I have seen
Is really happening

No no more
Oh Morpheus
Why did you leave me when I had need of your love?!
No holding back now!
Give me the real thing
I've got a reason
When I am
Alone
Don't you ever try to take me back
