

Hurt, Unclean

You'll always have my love, even though you loved with nothing 'cause I was dumb enough to let you slip right through you touched and you moved me you don't care about me

I feel so, so dirty
don't touch me
i'm unclean again

and I will hold the grudge for the ones who left me broken hearted when I was stupid enough that I believed in you

you touched and you moved me
you don't care about me
I feel so, so dirty
don't touch me

and I wish you would remember when I wish you would remember when I said I-
and I wish you would remember when I wish you would remember when I said I-

tell me all your needs give me all your needs show me on your knees suck it down to size

you touched and you moved me
you don't care about me
I feel so, so dirty
don't touch me

and I wish you would remember when
I said I-
and I wish you would remember when
I said I-
