

Husky Rescue, City Lights

Would you let me lie here by your side
Would you hold my hand if I close my eyes

Would you take me there last one more time
Tonight - under light

Would you be my friend for a while
Would you please pretend that you don't lie

Would you keep me warm if the sun won't shine
Tonight - under the city light

Would you be my guide if I am shy
Would you do me things that I don't mind

Would you give me ride that I can fly
Tonight - under light

Would you treat me right if I am kind
Would you like me more if I can smile
Would you set on tears if I start to cry

Would you take me there last one more time
Tonight - under light

Would you keep me warm if the sun won't shine
Tonight - under the city light
