

Hyde, Jesus Christ

Jesus Christ, I believe you
The deepest trust, I won't leave you
They call me crazy - but it won't matter
And death won't change me - not ever

Jesus Christ, I believe you
The deepest trust, I won't leave you
But my child is fading, an innocent
I hear no answer, I'm calling

My voice is reaching the sky
I'd do anything to save this life
Take me instead
Ah, God give me death

Jesus Christ, I believe you
They call me crazy - but it won't matter
And death won't change me - not ever

My voice is reaching the sky
I'd do anything to save this life
Take me instead
Ah, God give me death
Ah, God give me death
