

Hypersound, Songwriting

Look at the people that are walking down the street
But I say:

It's not first, it's not first, it's not first time I see them
It's not first, it's not first, it's not first time I see them

Look at the seagulls which are flying over the ocean
I say:

It's not first, it's not first, it's not first time I see them
It's not first, it's not first, it's not first time I see them

I cannot wonder of the things you show me, 'cause I've seen them all
I cannot wonder of the things you show me, 'cause I've seen them all

Now listen to this song you'll say it's stupid and the words are wrong
It's not first, it's not first, it's not first time they tell me
It's not first, it's not first, it's not first time they tell me

The grammar's wrong and after all you know that I'm not English
It's not first, it's not first, it's not first time they tell me
It's not first, it's not first, it's not first time they tell me

But I'm not meant to be a songwriter, I'm not meant to be so good
But I'm not meant to be a songwriter, I'm not meant to be so good
