

Hypocrisy, Last Vanguard

I decided to go out tonight.
Even when I drink, nowhere to hide!
Death there.
Death there.
Everything's dying now, and supposed to go in flames.

[chorus]
What will bring you the vengeance?
What will bring you the death?
What will bring you the happiness?
I will push you off the edge.
[end of chorus]

Twist around the knife in your friend.
Look in my eyes as you die.
Seeing your life fade away.
I'll haunt you for life.

Is it there?
A sense of death?
Your god is dead.
Awake am I!
What you fear, I'll make it more.
And what you need, I need more!

I decided to go out tonight.
Even when I drink, nowhere to hide!

Dying there.
Dying there.
Everything is dying now, as a cost of human ways.
[repeat chorus 2 time]

This is not, end of God.
Way to live, as you die!
Say goodbye or you will overcome my lies!
Come with me, after them.
Is it clear?
I need help!
Would you need, other deaths?
I'll make it more, when we die!
