

Hypocrisy, Slaughtered

I am alive to make you die
I am alive to take your life

For 30 years I have waited
Finally the time is here

Hunting you down and to destroy you
For betraying me
lying about your religion
Here by I sentence to death
Don't you ever be about the things you don't understand

Reach for the eternal fire
Reach [from] the death
Eternal liar, I capture your soul

I'll cut your arms and legs so can't get away
Your blood that will push through your veins, will soon make me cum
Your screams will give me pleasure
To see you suffer
You might not move in pleasure
The betrayer paid his price.
