

Hypocrisy, The Fourth Dimension

As my soul leaves the body
A dream taken to hell
To explore the unknown
For a vision of you of my life

The pressure reaches my soul,
As I see my destiny
All panic goes through my mind,
As I see myself slowly die

[Chorus:]

Wake me up from this nightmare
I cry out, "Make it stop!"
Get me back in my body
I'll never never leave it again
Never trust in your own instincts on a journey to hell

I can see my body lying, empty.
And so I reach out, and grab it and awake myself up.
OH GOD!!!
I feel a pity for all that died
'Cause I'm stuck here, in hell

[Repeat Chorus]

[Repeat Chorus]

A dream taken to hell
