

I Am Ghost, Pretty People Never Lie/Vampires Really Never Die

Look how you've grown, it's etched in skin and bone
Dressed in make-up and bleached out in the roses
That's hollow and tasteless where the spirits make love
And pretty corpses hold their brides
Do you know I'd never hurt you?
(I loved you so much we are not broken, we are deathless.)
So taste "it" and we will never be alone
I'll take the first bite, yeah, I am Ghost
Say goodnight to you, my darling, my darling.
Few words can kill me, they inspire in your hands
The sun outside these glass-shaped walls
Will burn the flesh off paper dolls
My lips and tongue, they bleed...
We won't fall, we'll be together, just the two of us
That's hollow and breathless
It kills me slowly, lost and lonely
Do you know that I'd never hurt you
(I loved you so much, we are not broken, we are deathless)
So taste "it" and we will never be alone
I'll take the first bite, yeah, I am Ghost
Say goodnight to you, my darling, my darling.
I am so sorry, so take this rose
And break this bottle of aged pills
Taste the blue ones, and we will sleep through December.
Awake to the birth of an Angel, she has your eyes
And I will hide from them, don't worry
Soon she will grow, I can't believe this is all my fault
Yeah, soon she will grow.
Unbury me and put me back together again.
Taste it
Taste it
Sad rose for life because I am already dead
So taste "it" and we will never be alone
I'll take the first bite, yeah, I am Ghost
Say goodnight to you, my darling, my darling.
