

Iamerror, Rainbow Road

never before has beauty been so deceiving except in your eyes
"keep on son, don't look back" maybe it was electric but it could've just been a rainbow-flavored reverie walking in a day-glo dreamland together your love is like a drug and how i wish it could've just been us down our dreamland path together I'm on the fucking edge. neon glows, as streetlights fade floating on cloud nine, just to fall.
