

IBE, Table Of Fools

set 2 plates in an empty room we woke up yo that's lost too soon just a taste of hiat's left of us me and you take your glass and we fill it up some remorse in a coffee cup starin' into the bottom of this hopeless love we thought for sure we had it all but look at the 2 of us now

just a table of fools
running around in circles
unable to move
trying to find our frost doors let's start over
even though we're nowhere turn this table of fools into another new all the words I am supposed to say stuck inside, they can find their way telling you, it will be ok,. kept repeating them every day

let's start over
