

Iced Earth, Crown Of The Fallen

Many lifetimes have come and gone in elation for this day by the order's hand the minions forged his way at age thirteen dawn the days of revealing the human forms will rue the day we crown the astral beast

(Chorus)
crowned is the king of the fallen rejoice his light, they live again
crowned is the king of the fallen
celebrate the subjugation of all man

His countenance, the venom burns the wraps conceal the pain don the shroud and armour deeply stained now place the crown upon his head the scepter in his grasp kneel now! before you stands the wicked god of wrath

(Chorus)
crowned is the king of the fallen
