

Icehouse, Someone Like You

Well I wonder some times as I look at you, was it so very long ago?
There were times, there were so many times
Holding on, and it comes only once in your life

There maybe just a chance, I'll live with you, maybe you
Maybe someone like you...Someone like you...

If a day should go by & I'm without you, moves so slowly it never ends
All the while wondering how it could be
Does he know that it comes only once in your life

There maybe just a chance, I'll live with you, maybe you
Maybe someone like you...Someone like you...

Mmm-hmmm

Someone like you...Someone like you...
Once in your life...Someone like you...
Mmm, want someone like you...Maybe someone like you...[fade]
