

IdleMiND, Empty Vee

I'm a hole inside myself
A reflection of everyone else
Come see what I can't feel
Come unchain my fear

I wasn't expecting you to stay, for long
But at least you came, so thanks for dropping in...

i'm not there anymore
I'm not mad anymore
And I don't smile, 'cause I'm not there

When I'm here you're not there
I'm a mess and you don't care
This won't go, there's no trust
You're a gap between us

When I'm here you're not there
I'm a mess and you don't care
This won't go, there's no trust
You're a gap between us

Why're you cold inside your head?
You're nothing of what you said
You sold me out so cheap
You broke my heart instead

I wasn't expecting you to stay, for long
But at least you came, so thanks for dropping in...

I'm not there anymore
I'm not mad anymore
And I don't smile, 'cause I'm not there

When I'm here you're not there
I'm a mess and you don't care
This won't go, there's no trust
You're a gap between us

When I'm here you're not there
I'm a mess and you don't care
This won't go, there's no trust
You're a gap between us

There's only one of you
But that's really your loss
There's only one of me, too

There's only one of you
But that's really your loss
There's only one of me, too

When I'm here you're not there
I'm a mess and you don't care
This won't go, there's no trust
You're a gap between us

When I'm here you're not there
I'm a mess and you don't care
This won't go, there's no trust
You're a gap between us
