

IdleMiND, The Trigger

Knock Knock, won't you let me in?
I've got a cake full of shovels, care to dig in?
Bring a knife and a plate
And your choice of fish
I like them dead and open eyed

No weapons
No cages
I'm really glad I waited

Outnumbered
Sedated
I never thought I'd say this

Glad to see you all here

Whatever. Whatever. Always and forever.

(Have you brought your gun?)
It's right next to my art
(I left my keys at home)
There's no need to be sweet
(Let's pretend to be friends)
Let's just play with my gun
(If I were you)
I'd pull the trigger and (run)

No winter has been cold and free, and free
Hell froze over and left me here asleep, asleep

Outnumbered
Sedated
I never thought I'd say this

Glad to see you all here

Whatever. Whatever. Always and forever.
