

Idols Teen, Celeste - Bas En Joel (Songfestival)

Celeste

Unfortunately, it happened to me
You've locked my heart and you've lost the key
Everything's changed now, a flower has faded
Rejected by her still you were mated

I'm drowning in grief, I'd rather leave
You came and left in the night like a thief

Swallowing words so what can I say
You have to move on with your life, day by day

I have been told, I've shot my bolt
My life was warm but now it is cold
I've made my mistakes, I know what it takes I've been betrayed and now my heart aches

My life is a mess, you took my princess
A stab in the back, nothing more nothing less
I've made a vow but now in the end
I've lost my girl and I've lost my best friend

What can I do, I love her too
She said she wants to break up with you

Although she is fragile she made up her mind
The contract of my life will stay unsigned

I've been misled by all that she said
You are the one I can not forget

Anxiety kills me, when I see you two It's like a wall, I have to break through chorus

I regret the things I've done, so give me one more chance, give me one more chance
Although we were both wrong, we can still be friends Chorus Accapella
