

Iggy Pop, Private Hell

I have a private hell of excellent quality i've dwelt there for years playing with my tears
it's tasteful, luxurious
and full of sexuality

And though there are tears
I control them with my gears
All in all, I must tell You - well I must tell You - i'm so proud of my private hell

Anger and greed brew and then they stampede Til i can transmute them into more loot

and full of sexuality
and though there are tears
I control them with my gears

All in all
I must tell you
Well I must tell you I'm so proud of my private hell
