Imagine Dragons, Fallen

Run for cover My sense of fear is running thin Undercover Just like a candle in the wind

Tell everybody, tell everybody Brothers, sisters, the ending is coming

Ohhhhh We are fallen, we are fallen Ohhhhh We are fallen, we are fallen Now we're just gonna ride it out

Every morning I'm staring shadows in the eye Oh, good morning Will you just wait until I die?

Tell everybody, tell everybody Brothers, sisters, the ending is coming

Ohhhhh We are fallen, we are fallen Ohhhhh We are fallen, we are fallen Now we're just gonna ride it out

Tell everybody, tell everybody
Tell everybody, we are fallen
Ohhhhh
We are fallen, we are fallen
Ohhhhh
We are fallen, we are fallen
Now we're just gonna ride it out

I just want to take it in Even when your fire runs out Will you start it up again? We are fallen
