

Impending Doom, The Mark Of The Faithful

A mark only seen upon the faithful, from the never ending truth with everlasting youth, we fall to our knees.
Surrounded by destructive heresies, we are made the worlds enemies, no threats will ever threaten us.
What about you? Don't believe the lies that will lead to your demise, we're inspired by a powerful spirit.
We believe we are the sons of a living majesty.

A mark only seen upon the faithful, from the never ending truth with everlasting youth, we fall to our knees.
Surrounded by destructive heresies, we are made the worlds enemies, no threats will ever threaten us.
We believe we are the sons of a living majesty.
We are the messengers in the last days.
